

GUIDELINES FOR TRIPS

1. If a parent(s) participate/attend a school sponsored event or trip, all school rules apply. Even if students are under the direct supervision of their own parents, school rules still apply.

2. When a parent(s) participate/attend a school event or trip, they are bound by the rules of a chaperone which include:

a. The OLMA teacher/coach/staff member in charge of the event or trip has ultimate authority.

b. All requests, questions, concerns are to be run by the OLMA teacher, coach, staff member in charge. No independent parental decisions are to be made.

c. Students are NOT permitted to roam hotels, eat in restaurants, or travel from place to place without a parent chaperone.

d. Students are to be under supervision at all times.

e. Everyone participating or attending events or trips is considered an ambassador for Our Lady of Mercy Academy and should conduct his/herself as such.

Thank you for all you do to help OLMA provide worthwhile opportunities and experiences for our students.
